History Museum to Debut New Exhibit “Place & Replace: Making of Old Sacramento” on February 5 New Exhibit to Be Unveiled at Foundation’s Annual “Tale of the City” Evening Fundraising Event on February 4

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – The Historic Old Sacramento Foundation (HOSF) is proud to announce an all-new exhibit titled Place & Replace: Making of Old Sacramento will debut at the Sacramento History Museum on Friday, February 5, 2016. An advance sneak peek of the new exhibit will be available as part of the Foundation’s annual fundraising event – titled Tale of the City: A Story of Urban Rebirth – scheduled for Thursday evening, February 4, 2016.

The pivotal new Place & Replace exhibit is designed to illustrate how Sacramento transformed its derelict West End downtown in the 1950s and 1960s to create today’s world famous Historic District. Incorporating large and eye-catching photo murals with talk-back boards and interactive spaces, the new exhibit will chronicle the development of the city of Sacramento and include engaging technological elements such as an entry portal, dialog tables and a video screening room. In addition to exploring archival materials, a special feature will also allow Museum visitors to create their own images of Sacramento’s exciting future.

The entertaining and lively Tale of the City fundraising event – which benefits the Historic Old Sacramento Foundation and its popular interpretive programs such as the Old Sacramento Underground Tours, Gold Rush Experience Tours, educational programs and more – will take place at the Sacramento History Museum from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Thursday evening, February 4. Tickets include scrumptious food, refreshments and a variety of entertaining activities. Admission is $45 per person for general admission or $75 per person for VIP tickets.
