Get ready to step back in time when the past mingles with the present once again in Old Sacramento! For the fifth consecutive summer, visitors to Old Sacramento will enjoy lively, fun and free street theater as part of the hugely popular “Time Travel Weekends” program. The streets of Old Sacramento will come alive with talented performers who put on spontaneous, interactive and often-elaborate skits and performances. Plus, visitors won’t want to miss the highly entertaining Old West stage shows happening daily including the much acclaimed New Golden Melodeon Review in the Eagle Theatre. As you stroll through Old Sacramento on weekends July 5 through August 24, you might just chance upon historic re-enactments complete with wagons, wild characters with heroes and villains, children’s pioneer craft activities, historic gambling, bowling, juggling, singing, dancing and other forms of musical mastery, military encampments, mining camps, parades, historic events, medicine shows and much more!
